SUBJECT: Draft DCI Letter to Senator Roth Regarding

changes to subject draft letter, copy attached, the following changes were agreed upon:

would...CIA.". (Drop "work force")

b) Page 1, Paragraph 2 - First sentence, "I

S.1527, the Agency...", change to read "The Agency..." (Drop Agency...special security and managerial requirements.", change to read "The Agency...special needs."

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

CIA Retirement System

f) Page 3, First Paragraph, Second sentence, "A more...on S.1527." We asked that this entire idea of providing a "detailed explanation of the need for a separate Agency retirement system..." be dropped because of our agreement with OMB that we would not antagonize Senators Stevens and Roth by pushing our bill out front of their legislation. [redacted] was not in agreement and noted that the Office of General Counsel, Mr. Sporkin, has pressed for more details in the letter. We left it that OLL would be extremely cautious and fully aware of the dangers of the Agency plan becoming very high profile with the Senators and causing us problems on the Hill.
